

Medication Drop Box Locations

Properly dispose of your unused/unwanted or expired medications for FREE with the Berks County Medication Drop Box Program. Not only does this program help prevent accidental and intentional misuse, but it also helps protect the environment.

Amity Township Police Department
Bally Police Department
Berks County Agricultural Center
Berks County Coroner's Office
Bern Township Police Department
Birdsboro Police Department
Boyertown Police Department
Brecknock Township Police Department
Caernarvon Township Police Department
Central Berks Regional Police Department
Cumru Township Police Department
Douglass Township Police Department
Exeter Township Police Department
Fleetwood Police Department

Hamburg Police Department
Kutztown Police Department
Laureldale Police Department
Muhlenberg Township Police Department
Penn State University Berks Campus
Reading Police Department
Robesonia Borough Hall
Shillington Police Department
Sinking Spring Police Department
Spring Township Police Department
Tilden Township Police Department
Tulpehocken Township Police Department
West Reading Police Department
Western Berks Regional Police Department
Wyomissing Police Department

For more information about this program visit cocaberks.org

This program is a collaboration between SOS Berks, the Berks County District Attorney's Office, the Council on Chemical Abuse, and Berks County Solid Waste Authority.

Do you think you or a loved one has a problem with drugs?

How to Get Help

Connect with the Council on Chemical Abuse (COCA) to find out about local resources available to you. COCA can be reached by phone at (610) 376-8669 and visited online at www.cocaberks.org.

How to Get Naloxone

Go to your local Pharmacy.

Visit the Council on Chemical Abuse (COCA) office at 601 Penn Street, Suite 600, Reading, PA 19601. COCA provides free naloxone kits to Berks County residents.

Reading Hospital 24-Hour Addiction Hotline (484) 628-8186

SOS Berks is a coalition of Berks County community members who have come together in an effort to reduce overdose deaths and stem the negative effects of the current opioid crisis.

CONNECT WITH SOS BERKS

@SOSBerks

@SOSBerks

